

BARN OWL (Issue 1 June 2020)

Is a new mailing that highlights events and resources for people interested in the arts and spirituality.

The virtual Art Café meets weekly on Zoom starts at 10.30am for an hour, exploring a different work of art, and talk about life, spirituality and all that intrigues and inspires us. Here's the programme for the rest of June:

June 10 Hilda, Shirin and Dolls (and other works) by Stanley Spencer (1891-1959)

June 17 Do you have a favourite artwork? Today's picture may be your pick!

June 24 Yellow Bunting, Yellow Hammer or Yellow Yowley by Thomas Bewick (1753-1828)

Please contact Nick Garrard on 538014 or Clive Evans on 538234 for more information and the Zoom link.

If you'd like to see beautiful photos of the Ranworth Antiphoner and the Rood Screen discussed at last week's café, why not visit the Ranworth church website here

Click on this link for Dr Carole Hill's talk on:

'Julian and Margery: Women of their Time and Place? Literacy and Spirituality in Late Medieval Norwich'.

This is part of series in honour of 600th anniversary of priest and poet Richard Caister).

Would you like to contribute to a new artwork on the Via Beata, the pilgrimage route from Lowestoft to St. David's? It passes through Ditchingham, not far from here. Details here.

If you'd like to know about the route and its artistic way stations, please see their website

Heart Edge, a project based at St. Martin's in the Fields, is currently offering two art-based courses: 'Inspired to Follow Art' and 'The Bible Story'.

Using the National Gallery's online collection, Associate Vicar Jonathan Evens leads a series of one hour reflections on art, understanding faith and what it means to follow Jesus today. Click here for more information.

'Seeing Salvation' looks at ways churches can engage with and display art. This starts on 5th June. Click here for more information.

Lectionary Art is a useful resource for anyone wishing to look at works of art connected to the Biblical passages of the Church lectionary. Plenty to see here

Barn Owl is always looking out for art and spirituality resources to share. Please contact Nick Garrard on 538014 or nickgarr39@aol.com if there's anything you'd like to suggest. Many thanks!
